I CMEOPATHIC HOSPITAL.—The Trustees of the New-York Homeopathic Dispensery Amodistion respectfully inform the Homeopathic Dispensery Amodistion respectfully inform the Homeopathists of this city, that measures are in progress for establishing a Hospital or Infirmary, for the treatment of disease in accordance with the doctrine of Habnemann.

It is proposed that the Homeopathic Dispensary in this city shall be incorporated with the projected Institution.

The Board of Trustees having discussed their project in an Address recessly issued in a pamphlet, it is unnecessary to say more in this place than that, as the originators and promoters of a movement, having the advancement of Homeopathy and the benefit of the public solely in view, it will be their aim to give to the proposed institution such a character as will unite in its support all shades of opinion among the friends of the cause.

In the meantime, they confidently invite all who, from study, observation, or a happy experience in their own persons, have acquired a firm faith to Homeopathy, to come to the air of this movement with their contributions and tuffuence, in accordance with that earness spirit of conviction which, while rejoicing in the light of a great truth, is forward to recognize the duty of serving it not only with good wishes but with good works.

Donations and subscriptions will be gladly received by the Trustees and Medical Officers of the Dispensary, whose names are subscribed, viz:

ens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep referebling.

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, lives and norvous system, the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemios generally. This entraordheary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial -it will resommend itself it should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. -On the eve of this great event, Dr. C. W. ROBACK, e greatest living Astrologer—so acknowledged by the ommon Council of Europe and America—would proffer Common Council of Europe and America—would profer the aid of the stars to all who desire to read the political future. Suppositions founded on the most plausible basis may err; pubabilities that seem almost cortainties may be compounded by the event; but science—coulf science, old as the pyramica, and true as truth itself—cannot err. To those who wish to know more of the result, in the coming contest, than they can gain from conjecture, Dr ROBACK offers his services. He can be consulted upon all subjects, every day and evening, at his residence, No 6 White st. For a full nativity his price is $5, and for advice and assist-ance to all lawful undertakings, his charges are propor-tionate.
